The Best Present

It was Sameer's seventh birthday. His parents got him puppy as a present. Both Sameer and his four – year – old sister, Sanya, were very happy. They decided to name the puppy, Woofy. Woofy loved to say 'Woof!' all day.

Woofy had brown fluffy hair and big black eyes. In a few months, he grew up into a big smart dog. He was very friendly and had learned many tricks to amuse the children.

Sameer and Sanya had got many toys for Woofy. Woofy loved one toy the best – a yellow ball. He chewed it, played with it, kicked it with his paws and chased it everywhere. Maybe Woofy thought the ball was a yellow mouse!

When Sameer and Sanya went to the park in the evening, Woofy followed them. He loved the park too. He ran about, rubbed his back on the grass and frightened the birds away.

Every Sunday, the children gave Woofy a bath. Woofy looked like a sheep with all his fur wet and sticking together. Sameer and Sanya laughed when they saw Woofy in his bath. After his bath, Woofy shook himself hard and he sprayed water everywhere. They laughed at that too.

Woofy was their best friend and they loved him very much.
