Abhinandan – A TRUE HERO

Abhinandan Varthaman is a wing commander in the Indian Air force. In the 2019 India-Pakistan standoff, he was held for 60 hours under captivity in Pakistan after his aircraft was shot down in an aerial dogfight.

Abhinandan hails from a village in Tamil Nadu. His father retired as an Air Marshal in Indian Air Force while his mother is a doctor by profession and it is his parents whom Abhinandan considered as his role model since his childhood. Abhinandan joined Indian Air Force in 2004.

On 27 February 2019, Abhinandan was flying a MIG-21 in order to respond to the intrusion by a Pakistani aircraft into Jammu and Kashmir. In the so called dogfight he crossed into the Pakistan territory where he was stuck by a missile. He landed with the help of a parachute unfortunately on Pak's land across the line of control. He was captured by the villagers before being rescued by the Pakistan Army. Later, he was taken by the Pakistani army, where he was questioned. Abhinandan was very composed and brave while answering the questions by the Pakistani officials. He proved to be a committed soldier while saying 'sorry major' to the questions which he was not supposed to answer. He returned to India on March 1 after spending around 60 hours in the Pakistani custody.

He has put up all the major qualities of an officer. Some qualities that made Abhinandan –a true war hero:

Loyalty

Selfless Service

Duty First
